

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT NICHOLAS J. SINNOTT

Chief Master Sergeant Sinnott serves as the Superintendent, 559th Medical Squadron, Joint Base San Antonio-Randolph, Texas. He leads a team of 342 members and manages a $17.6 million dollar budget. Chief Sinnott directs healthcare delivery for 25,000 beneficiaries. He's an active wing professional development and Master Resilience instructor, educating and mentoring warfighters across two installations. Additionally, he serves as the AETC 4B MFM, supporting 12 bases, safeguarding 105,000 workers in 715 industrial workplaces.

CMSgt Sinnott was born in Buffalo, New York and entered the Air Force in February 1998. His background includes full spectrum financial management and bioenvironmental engineering duties, team aerospace medicine operations, contingency response operations, as well as operations at the squadron, group and wing levels. Aside from assignments in AFMC, ACC, AFGSC, AMC and USAFE-AFAMERICA, he also served in support of JTF Southwest Asia, Operation SOUTHERN WATCH while assigned to the 332d AEG.

Prior to assuming his current position, CMSgt Sinnott served as a Wing Career Assistance Advisor, additional duty First Sergeant, Squadron Superintendent and an interim Medical Group Superintendent during his last three assignments. Chief Master Sergeant Sinnott is a faithful AFSA member, served as Chapter 1156's President and Senior Advisor and Chapter 1669's Senior Advisor, leading and advising a total of 1,728 team members.
